

GCRC Biobar Ordering Option for FroggaBio Inc

In an effort to increase its services, the Goodman Cancer Research Centre (GCRC) Biobar has teamed up with FroggaBio Inc to offer a new ordering method. All labs will have the option of ordering on their own FroggaBio products with free shipping to the GCRC Biobar (6th floor of the Cancer Centre) through the FroggaBio website.

You can place the order yourself, receive order & shipping confirmations, and track your order!

Please login to your account on www.froggabio.com

If you do not have an account, please register. Once registered, you will receive an email confirmation. Click on the email link to activate your account.

Place your order in your shopping cart and click “checkout.”

Your Billing Address will be your lab’s information with your PI’s name.

However, the Shipping Address will be that of the McGill GCRC Biobar.

On Shipping Instructions please write “Ship to McGill GCRC Biobar.”

Process Transaction

An email order confirmation will be sent to you (not to the GCRC Biobar).

Once the order has been processed, FroggaBio Inc will email your invoice to the email address that you provided at registration, and the GCRC Biobar will then be informed of the placed order.

Please note that stocked items can be picked up from the GCRC Biobar (depending on availability) while non-stocked items will usually be shipped for delivery on Wednesdays to the GCRC Biobar (depending on the time the order is placed.)

For more information, please contact your FroggaBio Inc and/or GCRC Biobar representatives.
